

Celebrate Spring with “One Tank Trips”

Wine Market Council Sommeliers Share Advice on Exciting Local Staycations that Offer Adventure, but Won't Break the Bank

As temperatures warm up with the arrival of spring, many Americans are itching for a getaway. However, the current economic climate has many Americans scaling back on spending and rethinking vacation plans.

To help local residents looking for a fun getaway this spring that doesn't break the bank or take hours to plan, Wine Market Council sommeliers are spilling secrets on exciting, affordable “One Tank Trips.” Learn the “insider” tips on uncovering local food and wine-friendly treasures and budget-savvy destinations local residents can get to on just one tank of gas, or less. Discover must-see attractions and events that won't leave anyone feeling financially hung-over.

